

CITY PRIDE SCHOOL, NIGDI

Young Leaders Take Charge at City Pride School's Investiture Ceremony 2026–27

City Pride School, Nigdi is committed to nurturing the dynamic leaders of tomorrow. It is the first school in Pune to have successfully implemented an electronic voting system since 2017. E-voting ensures immediate declaration of election results, making the entire process a true democratic exercise and an event filled with enthusiasm.

The Investiture Ceremony for the Student Council Ministers was held on Monday, 15th June 2026, marking a significant occasion for the budding leaders of Classes VI to X. Organised by the school committee, the ceremony celebrated the appointment of the newly elected student leaders and formally entrusted them with their duties and responsibilities for the academic year 2026–27. The event was graced by the esteemed dignitaries of the school and the Chief Guest, Dr Geeta Aphale, a medical professional and a dedicated social worker. She currently serves as the Chairperson of the Women and Children Welfare Committee and has been honoured as the first "Karyaksham Nagarsevika" for her exemplary contribution to the Pimpri-Chinchwad Municipal Corporation (PCMC).

A total of 48 student representatives proudly took over their leadership roles, stepping forward with confidence, commitment, and enthusiasm to serve the school community during the new academic year. The Student Council Ministers were formally conferred with their ministerial badges by the Chief Guest, in the gracious presence of the Directors, Dr Ashwini Kulkarni and Dr Deepali Sawai, along with the Principal, Dr Kanchan Deshpande, and the Vice-Principal, Ms Nisha Panicker.

The former Head Girl of the school ceremonially handed over the school flag, a symbol of authority and responsibility, to the newly elected Head Girl. This was followed by the oath-taking ceremony and speeches delivered by the newly elected Head Boy, Maanas Patil, Head Girl, Yukhtah Deshmukh, Member Secretary, Arisha Kumbhar, and the team of ministers.

The ceremony concluded on an inspiring note, reinforcing the values of leadership, responsibility, and service among the students. With renewed enthusiasm and a strong sense of commitment, the newly elected council members pledged to uphold the school's ideals and lead by example. The event marked the beginning of a promising journey of teamwork, integrity, and excellence for the academic year 2026–27.

